We host approximately 8 big rodeos every year attracting people from all over the state and region, as well as weekly equine and Ag related events and practices. We also cater to every other part of the community from weddings, meetings, fundraisers, benefits, parties, local elections and primaries, disaster trainings, monster truck exhibitions, the county fair, craft bazaars, motorcycle club events, horse sales and previews, and many others including individual activities. This is not to mention assisting and hosting approximately 80 4-H/FFA events every year. It would be safe to say that we provide a venue for thousands of people within the Sheridan community from every income level, age, and race. We welcome the public as a whole and these funds are critical in allowing us provide for all of the above at the best level of service possible.
